Dear Friends,

It may surprise you to learn that for the first three centuries, Christians did not celebrate Christmas at all! Most of the emphasis on the life of Jesus centred on His Crucifixion and Resurrection. It took a long time for Christians to realise that the birth of Jesus was very important. Part of the trouble was the finding of the right date. No-one could go to Somerset House and look up the records! In fact, at the beginning of the fourth century, the birth of Christ was celebrated on the night of January 6th to the 7th.

If you look in your diaries you will find that January 6th is the feast of Epiphany. In the second century there was a heretical sect - the followers of Basilides - which celebrated the Baptism of Christ on January 6th. Their view was that the divine Christ only 'appeared on earth' at the Baptism of Jesus. So the festival was called 'Epiphany' or 'appearing'. The orthodox Christians however did not believe that Christ's first 'appearing' was at His Baptism, but they appreciated the importance of that event, so they chose January 6th in order to combine the memory of his 'appearing' at His Baptism with that of His birth. For a long time the feast of Epiphany was celebrated in Palestine with great magnificence.

No-one really knows who changed the date to December 25th or why. One reason is that it coicided with the great pagan festival in honour of the Sun. The merging of the two festivals caused a lot of confusion of thought, and a certain amount of opposition to changing the date. Eventually the date of Christmas became firmly fixed...and so it remains toda

So ends the history lesson! What a festival it h turned out to be! What a wealth of poetry, music, dra legend, and popular customs have gathered round it! None of us can imagine Christmas without the emphasis on light and greenery (we too have a pagan past!).

Somewhere in all this, we must find a meaning, nd at the same time keep the mystery and the wonder.

No amount of 'carol singing' or 'Santa Claus' or 'Nativity Scenes' will help unless the fact of Jesus breaks through the trivialities and tinsel. He alone is the meaning of Christmas. By whatever road we come to a deep personal faith, all alike, we bow before a mystery greater than our human minds can ever fathom. In the best of old carols there is a wonderful blending of mystery and humanity: the Holy God who is infinitely beyond us and 'Emmanuel' who is God with us. The good news is thus both 'Other-worldly' and 'this-worldly.'

"Nowell, Nowell, now sing a Saviour's birth,
All hail His coming down to earth
Who raises us to Heaven!"

Mrs. Jenkins and the family join with me in wishing you a very Happy Christmas.

Yours sincerely,

Glyn Jenkins

CHRISTMAS AT ST. STEPHEN'S

FAMILY CHURCH READINGS

Theme: God comes in Christ.

Dec. 6th:	Isaiah	52:	1-10	"We shall overcome"
13th:	Matt.	5:	1-11	"True Happiness"
20th:	Luke	2:	1-16	"The birth of Jesus"
27th:	Luke	2:	25-32 39-40	"The story begins"

We have become so familiar with the fact of Christ, that the significance of His coming is blurred. The great value of the TV play, SON OF MAN, was that it awakened us again to the stabbing qualities of Jesus that had become piously covered over. In these weeks before Christmas, the aim is to try in imagination to get behind the great Coming and to make the discovery of the Christ.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES: DECEMBER 20th

11.0 a.m. FAMILY FESTIVAL SERVICE. This will include a modern Nativity Play.

6.0 p.m. FAMILY CAROL SERVICE to be held in the schoolroom. The music will be led by the Pioneer Children's Choir of Rochdale.

Please make this a two service attendance for the whole family.

*

Don't forget Family Church Carol Singing on Monday December 21st. We would like a number of groups to go out into the 'Care' areas and take the Spirit of Christmas out to people's homes. Children will be most welcome.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

SATURDAY 12th DECEMBER 7 - 11 p.m.

DANCING TO THE BILL DUNCAN TRIO

Tickets 5/- Refreshments.

CARE SCHEME

The 'Care Scheme' at St. Stephen's is six months old. Like many projects, it has taken time to get off the ground and more time is needed to 'educate' people about its aims and intentions.

The slide and tape recorder sequence has been used 10 times in the last six months, mostly locally in people's homes, but also as far afield as Accrington and Bristol. We would like to see more people arranging coffee parties in their own homes, and arranging for neighbours to come to see the slides. We would encourage more ecumenical groups to help unite our activities of caring.

More information is needed. Please let your 'Care' deacon know of anyone who lives on their own, anyone blind, handicapped, in hospital, etc. Remember, each church attender has the chance to share in this scheme (it isn't just for deacons!) Please help us to get as much information about the care areas as possible, so that the ministry of caring and visitation can be intensified.

Thoughtfulness is at the centre of our ministry of caring. For example..within the Care Scheme all the flowers from the Communion Table on Sunday November 15th went to Pakistani Immigrants to show our concern for their national tragedy. The families who received the flowers were immensely grateful. One family had a relative working in Dakar in East Pakistan. They were naturally worried about the relative, since Dakar is very close to the area which was hit by the tidal wave. We hope to keep in contact with at least one of these families.

Christmas is a time when our caring and thoughtfulness can reach out most effectively. To be lonely at Christmas is a harsh, unwelcoming experience.

GOOD WISHES

What a lot of people have been ill lately. We would like to send our best wishes for better health for Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Cockcroft, Mrs. Sutcliffe, Mrs. Kershaw and indeed all those who have been ill. You are missed at our services and are very much in our prayers.

DON'T FORGET THE PANTO

Parents, remember that if your children drive you potty over Christmas you can still get rid of the little perishers for a few hours on New Year's Day. Please realise that the Junior Church has already paid for the pantomime seats and if you have already completed the form to say your child is attending don't let us down. If you have not yet completed the form we urge you to do so without delay.

MARK WOODALL'S PROGRAMME FOR A BETTER WORLD

1. A scheme where every country paid a certain sum according to its size.
2. A world organisation that could gain access to every part of the world.
3. More notice taken of the people in Britain who have no friends and home to go to.
4. A patrol of all the areas where people like these go to.
5. More places where people with nowhere to go can stay the night and get a good meal.
6. A sum spent annually on help for the handicapped.
7. People to go to the homes of the people who are lonely to cheer them up about twice a week.
8. "Meals on Wheels" should let its helpers stay longer with the people they help so they can talk to them.

.....Mark is 12. The people who run the world are between 45 and 70. Who has most to learn?

BED TIME

The sun is sinking in the west,
Birds and bees have gone to rest;
Time to put your toys away,
Little man you have had a busy day.

We will pick them up one by one,
Now that job is done;
I will take you up to bed,
You little sleepy head.

Now safely up the stairs,
Close your eyes and say your prayers;
Dear "Jesus" from above,
Look down on me in love.

Please bless Mummy and Daddy too,
Keep them good and kind like you;
What was the other I had to say?
Oh! make me a good boy I pray.

Keep us safe until morning light,
Thank you "Jesus" good night;
Now into bed you creep,
Close your eyes and go to sleep.

Full marks go to our minister for taking the initiative in all this.

THINK ABOUT IT

Now it can be told!

Some of you may recall that in our September issue there was a puzzle about three apparently identical ball-bearings and in 3 weighings you were asked to find the odd one out.

You may have wondered why the result did not appear in the October issue. There is a simple reason: the editor did not know the answer. (Shame!....Boo!....Calls of Resign! etc....)
